

This Administration is the most corrupt in US history, where the appointed FCC Chairman hands out "goodies" to its cronies, while punishing its perceived enemies. I want my country back along with ethical standards, under which everybody is treated the same way and forced to adhere to accepted journalistic standards.